HCP No.915 of 2022

Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus to call for the records relating to the impugned order No.55/BCDFGISSSV/2022 dated 08.04.2022 on the file of the second respondent herein and set aside the same as illegal and direct the respondents to produce viz. Jallaludin Khan, S/o.Khamrudeen Khan, aged about 50 years, now confined in the Central Prison II, Puzhal, before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mrs.R.Subadra Devi
For Respondents : Mr.R.Muniyapparaj
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

[Made by RMT. TEEKAA RAMAN, J.]

The petitioner is the detenu, Jallaludin Khan, S/o.Khamrudeen Khan, aged about 50 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in No.55/BCDFGISSSV/2022 dated 08.04.2022, holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

HCP No.915 of 2022

2. We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

5. The Detention Order in question was passed on 08.04.2022. The petitioner made a representation dated 27.04.2022. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 04.05.2022. The remarks were duly received on 16.05.2022. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the petitioner's representation on 24.05.2022.

6. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of 12 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority, of which 4 days were Government holidays and hence, there was an inordinate delay of 8 days in submitting the remarks. There was a delay of 8 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Home, P&E after the Deputy Secretary dealt with it, of which 2 days were Government holidays. Hence, there was inordinate delay of 6 days in considering the representation.

7. In Rekha vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2011 (5) SCC 244), the Honourable Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

8. In Sumaiya vs. The Secretary to Government (2007 (2) MWN (Cr.) 145), a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

9. In Tara Chand vs. State of Rajasthan and others, reported in 1980 (2) SCC 321, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

10. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of 8 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority and unexplained delay of 6 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Home, P&E. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

WEB COPY In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in No.55/BCDFGISSSV/2022 dated 08.04.2022, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Jallaludin Khan, S/o.Khamrudeen Khan, aged about 50 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
