3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the owner of the bar and he is in no way connected with the alleged occurrence. Hence, he prays for granting of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that while the petitioner along with other accused were selling the Lottery tickets illegally, the de facto complainant prevented them from selling the Lottery tickets. Hence, the petitioner along with the other accused threatened the de facto complainant with dire consequences. He further submitted that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel on either side and the fact that there is no previous case against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvottiyur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
