2. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of occurrence, the petitioners entered into the premises of one Mani and caused damages to his Lemon Tree and also attacked his wife with hands. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and due to property dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. He would further submit that there are counter cases in Crime Nos.137 of 2022 and 138 of 2022 against the defacto complainant and his family members. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that due to property dispute the occurrence had happened and no one was injured in the said incident. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
