...Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying to issue a WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS to call for the records in connection with the order of Detention passed by the second respondent dated 01.07.2021 in D.O.No.40/2021-C2 against the petitioner's husband Venkatesan @ Thirupathi Balaji, Male aged 45 years S/o.Veerasingam, who is confined at Central Prison, Vellore and set aside the same and direct the respondents to produce the detenue before the Hon'ble Court and set him at liberty.

For petitioner : Mr.S.Senthil Vel

For respondents : Mr.R.Muniyapparaj,
Additional Public Prosecutor.

The petitioner is the wife of the detenu, Mr.Venkatesan @ Thirupathi Balaji, S/o.Veerasley, aged 45 years. The detenu has been detained by the 2nd respondent by his order dated 01.07.2021 in D.O.No.40/2021-C2, holding him to be a "SAND OFFENDER", as contemplated under Section 2(gg) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

5. The Detention Order in question was passed on 01.07.2021. The petitioner made a representation on 16.07.2021. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 20.07.2021. The remarks were duly received on 30.07.2021. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the petitioner's representation on 05.08.2021.

6. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of 10 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority, of which 3 days were Government Holidays and hence, there was a delay of 7 days in submitting the remarks. It is the further contention of the petitioner that the remarks were received on 30.07.2021 and there was a delay of 6 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Home,

Prohibition and Excise Department after the Deputy Secretary dealt with it, of which 2 days were Government Holidays, hence, there was an unexplained delay of 4 days in considering the representation.

7. In Rekha Vs. State of Tamil Nadu [2011 (5) SCC 244], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

8. In Sumaiya Vs. The Secretary to Government [2007 (2) MWN (Cr.) 145], a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

9. In Tara Chand Vs. State of Rajasthan and others, reported in [1980 (2) SCC 321], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

10. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of 7 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority and an unexplained delay of 4 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Home, Prohibition and Excise Department. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in D.O.No.40/2021-C2, dated 01.07.2021, passed by the 2nd respondent is set aside. The detenu Mr.Venkatesan @ Thirupathi Balaji, male, aged 45 years, S/o.Veerasamy, is directed to be released forthwith, unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
