The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 436 of IPC, 1860, in Crime No.176 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner and other accused have set fire to the go-down of the defacto complainant. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the co-accused was released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
