3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are the innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He also submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries and the injured is still in the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
