ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by P.N.PRAKASH, J.]

The detenu - Magesh, son of Jothi, aged about 32 years is the petitioner. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by its order dated 13.06.2021 in B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.21/2021, holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents and we have also perused the records carefully.

3. Though the learned counsel for the petitioner has raised several other grounds to assail the order of detention, he has mainly focused his argument on the ground that the extension of interim orders in suo motu W.P.No.11993 of 2021 has not been translated in vernacular language. He further submitted that the detaining authority, while detaining the detenu, has not furnished the legible copies of the documents relied on by him. This deprived the detenu from making effective representation. Therefore, on these grounds, the detention order is liable to be quashed.

4. On consideration of the submissions made on either side and upon perusal of the documents available on record especially Page Nos.285 to 293 of the booklet, it is clear that the extension of interim orders in suo motu W.P.No.11993 of 2021 has not been translated in vernacular language. Thus the impugned detention order is liable to be set aside on this ground.

5. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.21/2021 dated 13.06.2021, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Magesh, son of Jothi, aged about 32 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
