For Respondent : MR.A.DAMODARAN, Additional public Prosecutor

PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec. 438 Cr.P.C.

ORDER : The Court Made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 420 IPC r/w Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Harassment of Women Act, 2002 altered into 294(b), 420 and 306 IPC in Crime No.424 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the deceased/defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the respondent police stating that in order to purchase the agricultural land of the petitioner's husband, the deceased/defacto complainant paid a sum of Rs.5,00,000/- as an advance amount for a total sale consideration of Rs.9,00,000/-. However, she was unable to pay the remaining amount and she asked to repay the same. For which, the petitioner and his husband abused her in filthy language and harassed her. Thereafter, the deceased/defacto complainant committed suicide by pouring kerosene and fired herself in front of the petitioner's house. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner and her husband abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and harassed her. Due to mental stress and agony, the deceased committed suicide by pouring kerosene in front of the petitioner's house. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. From a perusal of the F.I.R., reveals that the deceased/defacto complainant committed suicide in front of the petitioner's house due to continuous humiliation and action of the petitioner. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
