ORDER

According to the petitioner, he has obtained No Objection Certificate from Tahsildar and purchased the land measuring 2 acres 7 cents. Thereafter, the sixth respondent is preferring false complaints to the authorities alleging he has conveyed Anadheenam lands and for cancellation of patta. The main grievance of the petitioner is that even though, it is a civil dispute, the respondent police is threatening him with dire consequences and further submits that several suits are pending before the Trial Court. Hence, he has filed this petition to forbear the respondents 2 to 5 not to interfere in the civil dispute with regard to the vacant land totally measuring 2 Acres 72 Cents Cheyyur E Village, Cheyyur Taluk, Chengalpattu District.

W.P.No.17267 of 2022

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as the matter is purely civil matter between the petitioner and the sixth respondent, the respondents police is interfering into their matter, even though suits are pending before the Trial Court. Hence, he prayed this Court to forbear the respondents 2 to 5 not to interfere in the civil dispute.

3. On the other hand, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that there are three complaints pending against the petitioner and the respondent police is carrying on with their investigation.

3. Considering the submission of the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, this Court directs the respondent police to issue notice of enquiry to the petitioner with regard to the complaints mentioned above. On such notice, the petitioner shall appear and co-operate with the investigation. If the respondent police finds that it is purely a civil dispute, then the parties shall be relegated to civil court, if otherwise, any cognisable offence is made out, the respondent police may proceed in accordance with law.
