The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 506(2) IPC in Crime No.63 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the petitioner is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the District Munsiff Cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Sendurai, Ariyalur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
