The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No. 83 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.06.2022, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and abused him, due to wordy quarrel regarding temple festival and it is alleged that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours, due to previous enmity, the defacto complainant lodged the complaint against the petitioners. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to previous enmity, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant with hands. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 21.06.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Arakkonam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
