CrI.O.P.No.15468 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 354A, 417, 506(i) of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Women Harassment Act, 2002, in Crime No.9 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that she was a tenant under the father of the petitioner. After sometime, the petitioner fell in love with the defacto complainant and on false promise, he had physical relationship with the defacto complainant and thereafter, refused to marry her and cheated her. Further, it is alleged that he has demanded money from the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there was a physical relationship and it has been done with the consent of the defacto complainant. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the defacto complainant and the petitioner loved each other. Subsequently, the petitioner refused to marry the defacto complainant. When she questioned about the same, the petitioner along with his mother and daughter have threatened her. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
