The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 324 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No. 270 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to grazing of cow in the garden of the defacto complainant and when he questioned the same, petitioners alleged to have threatened the defacto complainant with stick and scolded him in filthy words. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submit that the respondent police registered two FIR Nos.264 and 271 of 2022 against the defacto complainant members only due to injury caused to the petitioners herein. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that grazing of cow in the defacto complainant's garden and when he questioned the same, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with stick and caused injuries. There are two FIR registered against the defacto complainant by the fourth petitioner herein. He would further submit that the injured has been treated as out patient. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering that the injured has been treated as out patient, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Arani, Thiruvannamalai District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
