4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with other accused ate food and when asked for money, they attacked the defacto complainant with neck and taken away Rs.1050 from the food stall. He further submit that the petitioner is having eight previous cases against him. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there are eight previous cases as against the petitioner, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required, this Court is not inclined to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
