Dr.G.JAYACHANDRAN,J.

The earlier direction of this Court to expedite and complete the trial preferably, within a period of three months is not yet expired. However alleging that there is no interest shown by the prosecution to marshal the witness, the present bail petition is filed.

2. However, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) strongly opposed entertaining the bail petition on the ground that the delay is due to collision between some of the witness and the accused.

3. Taking note of the fact that the three months period granted is not yet expired, this petition is dismissed, with liberty to the petitioner to revive after the expiry of three months with the status of the progress in the trial.
