G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 392, 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.157 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. There are totally six accused in this case, in which the petitioner is arrayed as A6. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons smoked in front of the defacto complainant's shop. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, there arose a wordy quarrel, in which the petitioner along with other accused abused him in filthy language and assaulted with iron rod. In the said attack, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner has attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that there are two previous cases pending against the petitioner, however, the injured person has been treated as out patient and discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned V Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties, one among the surety shall be a blood relative of the
