Crl.O.P.No.16295 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(a), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC r/w Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Women Harassment Act in Crime No.197 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first accused misbehaved with the defacto complainant, therefore, the defacto complainant's husband warned first accused that, he will inform to police officer, as if again misbehaved with her wife. Therefore, based on the vengeance the accused persons came to the defacto complainant's house and abused the defacto complainant and her husband in filthy language and assaulted them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he had not committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and her husband and they sustained injuries. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Gobichettipalayam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court
