The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 427 & 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.259 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that de-facto complainant is a practising advocate and on instructions, he accompanied his clients for the purpose of surrender of the accused and the victim girl in connection with a women missing case in Cr.No.235/2022 on the file of the Thiruvallur Taluk Police Station. On their way to the office of the Superintendent of Police, the petitioners and other accused persons intercepted them, abused them in filthy language and pushed the de-facto complainant and as such, he fell down and sustained simple injury. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners along with other accused persons intercepted the de-facto complainant, abused in filthy language and attacked with wooden log. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tiruttani, Tiruvallur District on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court
