Crl.O.P.No.16222 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.193 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were attacked the defacto complainant's son with iron rod and sticks due to previous enmity. Further, they abused him in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that originally the defacto complainant's son working as a driver under the first petitioner for some time and he left the job without inimating the first petitioner. Thereafter, the said driver refused to return the original documents related to the vehicle. He further submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Villupuram, Villupuram District, on
