The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324 & 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No. 257 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners herein along with other accused persons are alleged to have teased the de-facto complainant's relative by singing song. When the same was questioned by the de-facto complainant, the petitioners herein and other accused persons are alleged to have assaulted the de-facto complainant and his relatives with stones and hands and further threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners and other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant and his relatives causing injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 02.05.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Omalur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
