CrI.O.P.No.16170 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.271 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners went to the tiffin shop and asked to serve the tiffin but the defacto complainant being owner of the hotel refused to provide food. Due to which wordy quarrel arose between them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are falsely implicated in this case and they are ready to offer substantial sureties for their release on bail and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioners assaulted and abused the defacto complainant with filthy language. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruthuraipoondi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
