3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and also abused him with filthy language and caused injuries. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Further, the petitioners could not able to surrender as directed by this Court due to Covid-19 circumstances. Thereafter, on two occasions, this Court extended the time to surrender before the Court below.

6. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on condition that the petitioners shall deposit Rs.5,000/- each to the credit of Tamil Nadu Legal Services Authority.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate-I, Tirupur, on condition that the petitioners shall
