Crl.O.P.No.16746 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 506(i) and 494 of IPC in Crime No.24 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the marriage of the defacto complainant with the petitioner was solemnized on 11.02.2019 , at the time of marriage, the parents of the defacto complainant gave 17 sovereigns of gold and 3 sovereign chain and cash of Rs.50,000/- for two wheeler and other household articles as marriage seedhana to the petitioner. It is further alleged that the petitioner is having hole in his heart, therefore, he is not able to keep sexual intercourse with her then his father was misbehaving with her. It is further alleged that the petitioner got married with another woman. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner got married with another woman without the knowledge of the defacto complainant. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Additional Mahila Judicial Magistrate, Krishnagiri on condition that
