The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 506(ii) of IPC r/w.4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.228 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is working as a collection agent in Divya Lakshmi Investment and Finance. The petitioner borrowed a sum of Rs.72,000/- from the above said finance and repaid only a sum of Rs.45,600/-. Thereafter, the petitioner has failed to pay the balance amount. Due to which, the petitioner along with her colleagues went to the petitioner's house for collecting the balance amount, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also intimidated with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the defacto complainant is working as a collection agent under Divya Lakshmi investment and Finance. The petitioner borrowed a sum of Rs.72,000/- from the said finance and repaid only a sum of Rs.45,600/-. Thereafter, he has failed to pay the balance amount. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate, Ranipet, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
