The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 5 and 7(3) of Lotteries Regulation Act, 1998, in Crime No.573 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with A1 was selling lottery tickets. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Only based on the confession statement of the co-accused, the petitioner is arrayed as an accused. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner and other accused were selling banned lottery tickets. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
