The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 447 and 379 of IPC, in Crime No.115 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner was appointed as a power agent of the land which belongs to the defacto complainant's father-in-law. It is alleged that the petitioners and other accused forcibly entered into the land and stolen coconuts from the land. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are the innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the land belongs to the defacto complainant's father-in-law. There is also a suit for injunction, pending between the parties in respect of the subject land. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Pollachi, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the
