CrI.O.P.No.16741 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 332 & 307 of IPC in Crime No.118 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant who is working as a constable along with SSI attached to the same police station went for night rounds, a lorry came towards them by hitting manner and they have stopped the said vehicle and enquired about them and asked the records of vehicle, due to which, the petitioner along with another accused have assaulted the defacto complainant indiscriminately with knife and also abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with another attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital . However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
