The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences under Sections 381 of IPC in Crime No.446 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioners along with other accused committed theft of 800 kgs of raw materials which belongs to the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that based on the confession statement of the other accused, petitioners were implicated in this case. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

CrI.O.P.No.16783 of 2022

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties (one must be blood related) each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
