The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 9 of Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 and Sections 5(i), 5(j)(ii), 6 of POCSO Act, in Crime No.18 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that A1 was married to the victim girl aged about 17 years on 23.04.2021. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the marriage between the first accused and the victim girl is an arranged marriage. The first accused and the victim girl gave birth to a female child. The petitioners herein are relatives of the defacto complainant.

However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, Fast Track Mahila Court, Thiruvallur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
