2. The case of the prosecution is that due to pathway dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. It is also alleged that the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked each other. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are the innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked each other and sustained injuries and the injured is still in hospital. He would further submit that it is a case of case in counter. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Though the injured is still in the hospital, the petitioners also sustained injuries. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Kallakurichi, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
