The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 & 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.144 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 14.07.2022 that the petitioner/accused married the defacto complainant's daughter and due to misunderstanding between them they were living separately from 02.10.2021. It is further alleged that there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding matrimonial dispute, due to which the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with hands, abused him in filthy language, threatened him with dire consequences and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been taken treatment as outpatient. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been taken treatment as outpatient, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
