Crl.O.P.No.17151 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 447, 294(b), 324 and 379 of IPC in Crime No.121 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant regarding previous enmity, due to which the first petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with hands, abused him in filthy language, threatened the defacto complainant and also caused fracture to him. It is also alleged that the first petitioner had snatched the defacto complainant's gold chain, the same was questioned by him, for which, the first petitioner throw the defacto complainant's chain. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Pollachi on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
