... Respondent

Prayer: Transfer CMP is filed under Section 24 of the Civil Procedure Code, to withdraw the divorce petition in HMOP No.90 of 2020 pending on the file of the Subordinate Judge, Cheyyar and transfer the same to the Subordinate Judge, Kanchipuram.

For Petitioner : Mr.D.Raja

For Respondent : Mr.S.Makesh

ORDER

The petition for transfer is filed to withdraw the divorce petition in HMOP No.90 of 2020 pending on the file of the Subordinate Judge, Cheyyar and transfer the same to the Subordinate Judge, Kanchipuram.

2. The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent was solemnised on 22.05.2002 as per Hindu Rites and Customs. The petitioner married the respondent as her 2nd husband and the respondent was also aware of the fact that the petitioner had already married a person one Mr.N.Loganathan. The marriage was solemnised with the concern of the parties and knowing the fact that the petitioner was a widow before the marriage between the petitioner and the respondent and children were there. Due to misunderstanding, the petitioner and the respondent are now living separately.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the respondent has filed HMOP No.90 of 2020 for Dissolution of Marriage before the Learned Subordinate Judge at Cheyyar and thereafter, the petitioner filed HMOP No.88 of 2022 for Conjugal Rights Petition before the Learned Subordinate Judge at Kanchipuram.

4. The petitioner and the respondent are employed in the Government Department and petitioner has to take care of her children. Under these circumstances, she is not in a position to travel and contest the case filed by the respondent in HMOP No.90 of 2020.

5. The learned counsel for the respondent objected the said contention by stating that the distance between Kanchipuram and Cheyyar is about 30 kms and both are employed and therefore, there is no need to transfer the case.

6. The principles regarding transfer petitions, more specifically in the matters of matrimonial cases, are well settled through the three decisions of the High Court of Madras, in the following cases:-

(i) The Hon'ble Division Bench of the High Court of Madras in W.A.No.1181 of 2009, dated 09.07.2010, wherein in paragraphs-21 and 22, it has been observed as under:-

“21. The domicile or citizenship of the opposite party is immaterial in a case like this. In case the marriage was solemnized under Hindu Law marital relationship is governed by the provisions of the Hindu Marriage Act. Therefore, Section 19 has to be given a purposeful interpretation. It is the residence of the wife, which determines the question of jurisdiction, in case the proceeding was initiated at the instance of the wife.

22. While considering a provision like Section 19 (iii-a) of the Hindu Marriage Act, the objects and reasons which prompted the parliament to incorporate such a provision has also to be taken note of. Sub Clause (iii-a) was inserted in Section 19 with a specific purpose. Experience is the best teacher. The Government found the difficulties faced by women in the matter of initiation of matrimonial proceedings. The report submitted by the Law Commission as well as National Commission for Women, underlying the need for such amendment so as to enable the women to approach the nearest jurisdictional court to redress their matrimonial grievances, were also taken note of by the Government. Therefore such a beneficial provision meant for the women of our Country should be given a meaningful interpretation by Courts.”

(ii) In yet another case in Tr.CMP.Nos.138 and 139 of 2006, dated 30.08.2006, the High Court of Madras has considered the following judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India:-

“(1) In the case of Mona Aresh Goel vs. Aresh Satya Goel [(2000) 9 SCC 255], when the wife pleaded that she was unable to bear the traveling expenses and even to travel alone and stay at Bombay, the Supreme Court ordered transfer of proceedings.

(2) In the case of Geeta Heera vs. Harish Chander Heera [(2000) 10 SCC 304], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that where the petitioner's wife has pleaded lack of money, the same has to be considered.

(3) In the case of Lalita A.Ranga vs. Ajay Champalal Ranga [(2000) 9 SCC 355], the wife has filed a petition to transfer the proceedings initiated by the husband for divorce, at Bombay. The place of residence of the wife was at Jaipur, Rajasthan. In that case, the petitioner is having a small child and that she pleaded difficulty in going all the way from Jaipur to Bombay to contest the proceedings from time to time. Considering the distance and the difficulties faced by the wife, the Supreme Court has allowed the transfer petition.

(4) In a decision in Archana Singh vs. Surendra Bahadur Singh [(2005) 12 SCC 395], the wife has sought for transfer of matrimonial proceedings and a divorce petition has been filed by the respondent's husband at Baikunthpur to be transferred to Allahabad, where the petitioner's wife was residing, on the ground that it would be difficult for her to undertake such long distance journey, particularly in circumstances, in which she finds that the proceedings under 5 Section 125 Cr.P.C. was already pending before the Family Court, Allahabad. Considering the difficulties faced by the wife and also the long distance journey, the Honourable Supreme Court was pleased to order transfer of the proceedings to Allahabad."

(iii) In a decision made in TR.CMP(MD)No.108 of 2010, dated 03.03.2011, the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court, wherein in paragraph-18, it has been observed as below:-

“18. It is true that section 19 of the Hindu Marriage Act, has been amended by insertion of proviso of (iii)(a) to section 19. Of Course, this amended section 19(iii)(a) gives special preference to the wife to file a petition or defending the case of the husband before the Court within whose jurisdiction she resides. The intention of the Legislator is to safe-guard the interest and rights of the women, who are being subjected to harassment and cruelty. But this special preference conferred under section 19(iii)(a) of the Hindu Marriage Act shall not be used to wreck vengeance on the husband. There must be a justifiable cause to select the jurisdiction of the Court where she resides.”

7. Considering the facts and circumstances, the HMOP No.90 of 2020 pending on the file of the Subordinate Judge at Cheyyar stands transferred to the Subordinate Judge at Kanchipuram. The Subordinate Judge at Cheyyar is directed to transmit the case papers to the Subordinate Judge at Kanchipuram to be tried along with HMOP No.88 of 2022 within a period of four (4) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order as expeditiously as possible.
