2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that inadvertently the dates have been wrongly typed. Therefore, he seeks for amendment in the dates.

3. Learned counsel for the contesting respondents/Decree holders is present. He has not filed any counter, however seeks time for filing counter.

4. Though the name of the 4th respondent is printed in the cause-list, none appeared on behalf of them.

5. This application is filed with regard to some amendment in the dates. Changing the dates in the application would in no way affect the respondents. Since the respondents are Decree Holders, if at all there is anything, they are entitled to execute the decree. By allowing the amendment, they are in no way going to be prejudiced.
