dated 22.08.2013 and the consequential impugned CC Bill No.279, dated 01.12.2014 issued by the fourth respondent in his insofar as it relates to the levy of banking charges towards a sum of Rs.25,90,063/- under Serial No.19 'Other Adjustment' quash the same as illegal, arbitrary, without the authority of law and against the orders of the Hon'ble APTEL in Appeal No.197 of 2012 and consequently forbear the fourth respondent, their men, officers, agents, servants, representatives and/or any one claiming through or under them and/or or any other person from in any manner levying, demanding and/or collecting banking charges at 94 paise from the petitioner for their HTSC No.279 either through the CC Bills or in any manner, till such time that the first respondent reconsiders the computation of banking charges as directed by the APTEL, New Delhi in its order dated 24.05.2013 in Appeal No.197 of 2012.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.S.Pandiyaraj

For Respondents : Mr.M.Abul Kalam

ORDER

Heard Mr.R.S.Pandiyaraj, learned counsel for the petitioner; Mr.M.Abul Kalam, learned counsel for the respondents and perused the materials available on record.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would state that this Writ Petition has been filed challenging the Circular issued by the third respondent dated 22.08.2013 and the consequential bill issued by the fourth respondent dated 01.12.2014, based on the said Circular. According to the learned counsel, the Circular as well as the bill were issued contrary to the order passed by the Appellate Tribunal for Electricity in Appeal No.197 of 2012.

3. The learned counsel further submitted that subsequently the third respondent has issued a fresh Circular on 03.10.2017 based on the Tribunal's order and the relevant paragraph of the Circular dated 03.10.2017 is extracted hereunder:-

"8.0. Further, it is stated that while revising the CC bills from 01.08.2012 to 31.03.2016 in respect of the wind energy captive user, if any refund of banking charges and other charges arising, the same may be allowed for adjustment in the ensuing CC bill (s) in 10 instalments. Similarly, if any collection of CC charges is arising, the same shall be collected separately by issuing separate demand with 15 days' notice and if not paid, the same may be included in the ensuing CC bill after giving appropriate notice to the respective consumers. Instalments if any requested can be acted up on suitably without exceeding three monthly instalments."
