CrI.O.P.No.17550 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 447, 294(b), 427, 506(1) of IPC, in Crime No.202 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, totally there are four accused. It is alleged that due to previous enmity, A1 along with 50 members have trespassed into the defacto complainant's property and damaged the defacto complainant's house. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that, based on the confession statement of arrested accused, the petitioners have been implicated in this case. He further submitted that the 1st petitioner is the driver of the JCB and the 2nd petitioner is the driver of the lorry. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Learned Judicial Magistrate-I, chengalpattu on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on
