2. The case of the prosecution is that, there are totally two accused, in which the petitioner is arrayed as A2. A2 is working under A1. A1 collected sum of Rs.2.5 lakhs from each victims numbering 50 to get job in abroad. However, they failed to get any job and also refused to return the amount.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that, though the petitioner is an employee of A1, all the amounts were collected from the victims and deposited in the account of the petitioner.

4. However, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that there is no evidence to show that single paise was transmitted to her account. That apart, the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 03.06.2022 and A1 is still absconding.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case
