2. Heard both sides.

3. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant with knife, as a result of which, the petitioner sustained injuries on his head. Hence, the complaint.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant and caused grievous injuries to him. He would further submit that the injured is still in hospital and there are eight stitches on his head. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
