The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.29 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding political enmity, due to which, the petitioner has abused him in filthy language and attacked him with deadly weapons and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has nothing to do with the above offence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court, earlier granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner in Crl.O.P.No.2139 of 2022 on 02.02.2022. Due to the health issues, the petitioner failed to comply with the condition imposed by this Court. Therefore, he filed the second anticipatory bail petition before this Court. Further, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that now the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any condition imposed by this Court.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
