3. Thereafter, the second respondent filed petition seeking anticipatory bail in Crl.O.P.No.19046 of 2021 and this Court granted anticipatory bail to the second respondent on 21.10.2021 and taking advantage of the same, the second respondent is alleged to have been continuously harassing the petitioner over phone and also in person and threatening to share her obscene photographs and videos to third parties. Hence, this petition.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this Court granted anticipatory bail to the second respondent with certain conditions, however, contrary to the said conditions, the second respondent is continuously harassing the petitioner over phone and also in person and also threatening her. Hence, this Court may cancel the anticipatory bail granted to the second respondent.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the first respondent submitted that both the petitioner and the second respondent lodged complaint as against each other and they are pending enquiry.
