respondent submitted that the petitioner questioned the defacto complainant about her illicit relationship with his son and abused her in filthy language and assaulted her. Therefore, the said Kapana lodged a complaint before the respondent police and committed suicide by consuming poison. He further submitted that there is one previous case pending against the petitioner under Women Harassment Act. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner does not require. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:-

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Arni on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or
