The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 506(i) IPC and Section 4 of TN Prohibition of Charging Exorbitant Interest Act, 2003, in Crime No.194 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant borrowed Rs.1 lakh from the petitioner and he had paid interest regularly. Due to his financial crisis, he unable to pay interest for last two months. While that being so, the petitioner demanded exorbitant interest for the principal amount and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and he is an innocent, he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the the defacto complainant borrowed money from the petitioner and subsequently he paid the said amount. Thereafter, the petitioner demanded exorbitant interest from the defacto complainant and threatened him. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Nagapattinam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent
