WEB CO N.SATHISH KUMAR,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 341, 324, 336 and 353 of IPC, 1860 and Section 3 of Tamil Nadu Property Prevention of Damage and Loss Act, 1992, in Crime No.190 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.07.2022, at about 7 a.m., around 200 persons who are the supporters of Thiru.Edappadi Palanisamy had unlawfully gathered near the AIADMK head office. Thereafter, at about 8.45 a.m., around 200 persons who are the supporters of Thiru.O.Paneer Selvam also gathered unlawfully during which, there was chaos between both the parties and they both attacked each other with stones and bottles as a result of which, the police personals who were providing security, sustained injuries. Further, the Government and private vehicles which were parked near the place, were also damaged. Hence, the complaint.

Crl.O.P.No.18463 of 2022

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. In fact the petitioners are the victims of the attack committed by the team of Thiru.O.Panneerselvam and the petitioners never involved in the alleged crime and that they have been falsely roped in this case since, they were also present in the party office at the time of said chaos. However, he would submit that the petitioners in order to show their bonafide, are ready to pay a substantial amount to any charitable institute as may be directed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioners along with others involved in the said chaos. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police.

CrI.O.P.No.18463 of 2022
