Crl.O.P.No.18036 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC r/w 4 of Women Harassment Act in Crime No.201 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the 1st petitioner's mother died on 23.07.2022 and being the adjacent resident, the defacto complainant had visited the petitioners resident to take part in the funeral of the said deceased. Due to previous enmity, the petitioners joining hands together had objected the complainant to took part in the funeral and not left with that had attacked her and caused injuries to her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ranipet on condition that the petitioners
