The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 353 and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.121 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners belong to a same family. The defacto complainant is a Government official. It is alleged that the petitioners disturbed the defacto complainant from discharging his duties and also abused him in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and disturbed him from discharging his duties. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate, at Cheyyur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing
