The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC and Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act in Crime No.92 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 22.07.2022, the wife of A1 questioned the defacto complainant about stagnation of drainage water in front of her house. Due to which, there arose wordy quarrel between the family members of A1 and the defacto complainant, in which, the defacto complainant and his family members were assaulted by the petitioners and sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there is a case in counter registered as against the defacto complainant. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant and his family members and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 23.07.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is a case in counter as against the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Komarapalayam on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
