4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the defacto complainant and also threatened with dire consequences and caused injuries. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. It is seen that there are seven accused in this case in which, the petitioner arrayed as A1. Even according to the case of the prosecution, there was money dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioner, on instruction of the petitioner herein, other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant's husband and demanded money.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial
