Crl.O.P.No.18258 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) IPC r/w 3 of PPDL Act in Crime No.360 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant working at Shanmuga Agencies Petrol Bunk as Cashier on 23.06.2022 night around 7.50 p.m., the petitioners went to the Petrol Bunk for filling fuel, at that time, the defacto complainant asked the petitioners and others to move forward in the line, at that time, they abused, assaulted, threatened with dire consequences and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Villupuram on condition that the
