The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b) and 506(i) IPC in Crime No.197 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners trespassed into the defacto complainant's agriculture land and threatened him to stop cultivating the land and also abused him with filthy language. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners damaged the defacto complainant's agriculture land and threatened him with filthy language. He would further submit that the petitioners also lodged a counter case as against the defacto complainant. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioners also filed a counter case against the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate, Walajapet, Ranipet District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing
