Crl.O.P.No.18412 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.363 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant's brother standing in the Tasmac Shop for purchasing liquor, the petitioner herein who was standing near him demanded a sum of Rs.150/- for purchasing liquor, the same was refused by the defacto complainant's brother, due to which, the petitioner had took a nearby empty bottle, broke the same and stabbed him, thereby the victim sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant's brother and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
